Setting the Stage

Onyahsa is blessed with a beautiful setting in its own wooded bay on Lake Chautauqua. It is nestled within over 120 wooded acres that includes a core campus and natural woodlands. Its facilities include a year-round heated lodge, beautiful winterized dining hall, sports fields, nature areas, cabins, and tents.

Group Use and Facility Rentals

Youth group enjoying a winter retreat

Throughout the school year, Camp Onyahsa offers its facilities for picnics, retreats, parties, birthdays, weddings, reunions, school outings, Environmental Education classes, conferences, sportsmen, and business meetings. Site users may rent the camp for day, evening, or events. The camp site offers a scenic bay on Chautauqua Lake and a unique rustic hall.

A full-year dining hall with a complete kitchen, year-round lodging, canoes, rowboats, a swimming area, sports fields and courts, bathroom/shower facilities, wooded acreage, conference capabilities with wireless DSL, stage, and easy access for people of all abilities. The site has overnight accommodations for up to 150 people during warm weather, and approximately 40 residents in our heated lodges.
